

Read Kansas!

P-3

By the Kansas State Historical Society

The Meadowlark

The meadowlark is a small bird with a proud yellow chest. Brown stripes decorate its head. The meadowlark has a sharp, pointed beak.

The meadowlark likes to sing. It sings its song on the prairie. The meadowlark likes to fly in the sky but it builds its nest on the ground.

The meadowlark is the state bird of Kansas.